

National College

Vaccination Policy

National College does not require students to obtain vaccinations, except for students in the Surgical Technology, Emergency Medical Technology, and Nursing programs. Students in these programs should refer to the College catalog for a list of required vaccinations.

In addition, students enrolled in programs requiring an externship should be aware that they are subject to any immunization requirements in place at the externship site.